HSBC Korea confirms appointment of Jonathan Yip as Head of Global Banking

HSBC announced the appointment of Jonathan Yip as Head of Global Banking (GB) for Korea, effective 8 February, 2021. He has been serving as Acting Head of GB in Korea since July 2020.

Jonathan will be responsible for growing the Global Banking business by supporting Korean and multinational companies domestically and globally with our wide range of products and services. He will also look after financial institutions and public sector companies.

Since joining HSBC in 2008, Jonathan has undertaken a number of international roles across Global Banking in Hong Kong, New York and San Francisco with a coverage focus on global technology and media companies. He has also played a key role in driving strategic change for Global Banking's Korea business with a focus on expanding into the new economy and supporting clients' sustainable finance needs.

Eunyoung Jung, President & CEO, HSBC Korea, said: "I am pleased to confirm the appointment of Jonathan to lead our Global Banking division, which is core to our business in Korea. His global experience and creative insight will help our clients find new opportunities in this fast changing world."

Jonathan Yip holds a Bachelor of Commerce from Smith School of Business, Queen's University, Canada.
